WHEREFORE, Defendant, having fully answered the Petition, requests that the Court deny the relief sought by Plaintiffs' in the Petition, that the Plaintiffs take nothing, that the Court award Defendant its fees and costs of defending this action, and that the Court award Defendant such other relief as is reasonable and appropriate.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

While continuing to deny the material allegations of Plaintiffs' Petition, Defendant asserts the following affirmative and other defenses:

1. Plaintiffs' Petition, and each and every count thereof, fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.
2. Plaintiffs' Petition fails to state a claim for conspiracy upon which relief can be granted in that, under the law, affiliates, officers, and directors cannot conspire with each other.

3. The violations of any regulations cited by Plaintiffs do not provide the basis for private causes of action.

4. Plaintiffs' claims are barred or limited to the extent that they are based upon any theory providing for liability without proof of fault or causation.

5. Plaintiffs' Petition, and each and every count thereof, is barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

6. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrine of assumption of risk.

7. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrines of release, accord and satisfaction, res judicata, collateral estoppel, laches, estoppel, and/or waiver.

8. Plaintiffs' named next friends lack standing or capacity to sue on behalf of the Plaintiffs in this case.

9. Plaintiffs' named next friends' authority to represent Plaintiffs has expired, to the extent Plaintiffs have reached the age of majority.

10. Plaintiffs are not entitled to an award of attorneys' fees.

11. Plaintiffs are barred from recovery to the extent that they have failed to mitigate damages, if any.

12. Defendant denies any negligence on Defendants' part. By way of further defense to Plaintiffs' claims, Defendant states as to one or more of the named Plaintiffs, under the doctrines of contributory negligence and comparative fault, any right of recovery Plaintiffs might otherwise have is barred in whole or in part by their failure to exercise ordinary care for their own health, safety, and protection of their property.

13. At all relevant times, the Defendant complied with all applicable laws, regulations, policies and standards.

14. Defendant denies the existence of any duty to Plaintiffs. If any duty is found to have existed, Defendant denies violating any duty owed to Plaintiffs.

15. If Plaintiffs sustained any damages or injury, the alleged damage and injury complained of was due to unavoidable circumstances and from causes beyond the control or fault of Defendant.

16. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff's alleged exposure to lead or other allegedly toxic or harmful substances resulted from sources other than those allegedly stemming from the actions of Defendant.

17. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of intervening cause or superseding cause, and any damages that Plaintiffs may have sustained were caused in whole or in part by actions of independent third parties, including, but not limited to, the Republic of Perú, Empresa Minera del Centro Del Peru S.A. (Centromin Peru S.A.), and Activos Mineros S.A.C.

18. Plaintiffs have failed to join parties that are necessary and indispensable under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 19.

19. In the event that Defendant is found liable to Plaintiffs, which liability is expressly denied, Defendant will be entitled to indemnification, contribution, or apportionment from other parties pursuant to applicable law.

20. In the event that the domestic law of the United States and/or the State of Missouri is found to apply to Plaintiffs' claims for punitive damages (Defendant at all times denying that such laws are applicable or controlling as to such claims), such claims by Plaintiffs are barred in whole or in part because an award of punitive damages would violate Defendant's procedural and substantive due process rights and equal protection rights under the Fifth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and Article 1, §§ 2, 10, 19 and 21 of the Missouri Constitution. In particular, any law purporting to permit the recovery of punitive damages in this case is unconstitutional, both on its face and as applied in this case in that said law, among other things: (1) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards to guide and restrain a jury's discretion in determining whether to award punitive damages and in determining the amount of any punitive award; (2) unconstitutionally may permit jury consideration of Defendants' net worth; (3) is void for vagueness in that it fails to afford constitutionally sufficient advance notice as to what conduct will result in punitive sanctions; (4) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards to be applied by the trial court in post-verdict review of a punitive award; (5) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards for appellate review of a punitive award; and (6) otherwise fails to satisfy the constitutional requirements set forth in, among others, State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S. 408 (2003); Pacific Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Haslip, 499 U.S. 1 (1991); TXO Production Corp. v. Alliance Resources, Inc., 509 U.S. 443 (1993); and BMW of North America, Inc. v. Gore, 116 S.Ct. 1589 (1996).

21. Should any other party effect a settlement of one or more of the claims asserted in this action, Defendant is entitled, as a credit against any judgment herein, to the setoff required by Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.060 (Defendant at all times denying that Missouri law is applicable or controlling) in the stipulated amount of the agreement, or in the amount of consideration paid, whichever is greater.

22. Plaintiffs' claims may be governed by and/or limited in whole or in part by any award or interim measure entered by the tribunal in the pending international arbitration brought by Defendant The Renco Group, Inc. against the Republic of Perú under the U.S. – Perú Trade Promotion Agreement.

23. Plaintiffs' claims for punitive damages are barred, in whole or in part, by the laws of the Republic of Perú.

24. Plaintiffs' claims for compensatory damages are barred, in whole or in part, by the laws of the Republic of Perú.

25. Plaintiffs are third-party beneficiaries of certain agreements between the Republic of Perú and/or certain of its instrumentalities, on the one hand, and certain of the Defendants, on the other. Under the terms of said agreements, Plaintiffs are barred from asserting the liability claimed in their Petition, Defendant at all times denying such liability.

26. Plaintiffs' claims are barred or otherwise limited by the doctrine of sovereign immunity.

27. Plaintiffs' claims have been released by operation of certain agreements between the Republic of Perú and/or certain of its instrumentalities, on the one hand, and certain of Defendants on the other, by the operation of Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.060 (Defendant at all times denying that Missouri law is applicable or controlling) and by other means.

28. Defendant hereby gives notice, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 44.1 that it intends to raise an issue about the law of the Republic of Peru, specifically that Plaintiffs' claims are governed by the substantive laws of the Republic of Perú.

29. Defendant adopts and incorporates herein any other affirmative defense asserted by any other defendant to this action.

30. Defendant specifically reserves the right to assert any avoidance or legal defense, affirmative or otherwise, to this action as may become apparent as discovery progresses and/or additional pleadings are filed.

WHEREFORE, Defendant The Renco Group, Inc. requests that the Court deny the relief sought by Plaintiffs' in the Petition, that Plaintiffs take nothing, that the Court award The Renco Group, Inc. its fees and costs of defending this action, and that the Court award The Renco Group, Inc. all such other and further relief as is reasonable and appropriate.
